

CASE STUDY • CARRON CONNECT PARTNERSHIP (SOFIA PROJECT)

Secretary of the Carron Connect Partnership Val Hunter has been involved with CVS Falkirk for many years.

Recently, they have worked closely with CVS Falkirk's Organisational Support team. The Partnership's SOFIA (Sharing Opportunities, Friendships, Involvement and Activities) Project works to fill the gap in provisions for older people. However, they struggled to find ongoing funding.

The Partnership began working with the Capacity Building Development Officer in November 2014. Together, they focused on defining the needs and aims of the SOFIA Project.

“They are a tremendous help”

“We've never had this kind of support before”

“The Officer is an excellent worker,” Val says. “Very organised, and very supportive. They make suggestions, not demands.”

CVS Falkirk has helped the Partnership with multiple funding applications, as well as support in other areas of governance. This includes a document summarising the SOFIA Project's aims and activities, which has multiple uses.

“It's a brilliant piece of work – it gets straight to the point.”

“We tell people how much CVS Falkirk have helped us, and direct people to them.”
